

Defaulted Student Loans

According to the National Student Loan Data System you are in DEFAULT on one or more student loans.

If your federal student loan has been paid in full, or if you have made satisfactory payment arrangements that make you eligible for additional Title IV funds, then you MUST obtain a Title IV Eligibility letter from the guaranty agency that holds the defaulted loan.

If you have multiple federal student loans in a default status, you MUST obtain a Title IV Eligibility Letter from EACH guaranty agency.

Please refer to your “MESSAGES” page on myFinAid to obtain contact information about the guaranty agency holding your defaulted student loan.

The Title IV Eligibility letter MUST state that you are NO LONGER IN A DEFAULT STATUS.

Once you receive your Title IV Eligibility Letter, please submit it to the Office of Financial Aid for review.

* Please note that the Office of Financial Aid cannot request this letter for you. Also, the Office of Financial Aid cannot accept verbal verification of your loan status. You must submit written documentation of the resolved default status from the guaranty agency listed on your “messages” page. ****

You may also visit NSLDS at nslds.ed.gov to review your loan history.